

About us

Sree Kadampuzha Bhagavathi Devaswom is a Public Religious Institution coming under the purview of Madras HR & CE Act XIX of 1951 and coming under the jurisdiction and control of the erstwhile Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowments (Administration) Department, Kozhikode.

The HR & CE Dept has framed a Scheme for the administration of the temple in 1987 and an Executive officer from Dept appointed to the temple. As Per Scheme Provisions, usually the trustee is appointed by Deputy Commissioner, Malabar Devaswom Board Who is the Senior most member of Manemangalathu variam.

The HR & CE dept under the Govt of Kerala has been replaced and the Malabar Devaswom Board came into existence on 2nd October 2008. Now this Special Grade Devaswom is coming under the Malabar Devaswom Board, Kozhikode, Govt of kerala.

The ThantriSthanam is vested in the famous Andaladimana of Pattambi.

The Executive Authority of this Institution is the Executive officer. Executive officer is the competent authority to Operate the accounts on behalf of sree kadampuzha bhagavathy devaswom. He is the proper person to sue or to be sued on behalf of the temple.

Contact Address

The Executive Officer,
KadampuzhaDevaswom,
P.O.Kadampuzha,
Malappuram Dist. 676553,
Kerala, South India

Phone:Devaswom Office - 0494-2615790

Fax No.0494-2615720

Email: kadampuzhatemplecontact@gmail.com

Terms and conditions :

1. Devaswom offer all poojas made available at the online vazhipadu booking site and will do it according to the custom and usage of the Temple.
2. The vazhipadu is conducted as per the request of the devotee, as per Hindu faith and belief. Devaswom will not be responsible for any technical dispute or any other type of dispute which may arise.
3. After successful completion of the online booking, the receipt will be provided online.
4. Once the vazhipadu is booked, the devotee will not be allowed to change the date of vazhipadu and the type of vazhipadu.
5. Devaswom will not collect any service charge from the devotees for online booking, except the shipping charges for Prasadam.

6. The prasadam can be collected from the Temple as per the custom and rules of the Temple. Party shall produce the receipt in the Advance Counter at the Temple and agrees to follow the instructions from the counter for collecting the prasadam.
7. Devaswom is not interested to get involved in any dispute of any nature. However if it so happens then only laws which are prevailing in India will be applicable.
8. Devaswom is not compelling any devotees for offering any vazhipadu. This online booking facility is to help those devotees who are interested to make use of the facility
9. Devaswom will not be responsible for any transaction failures from the Bank.
10. The devotee has read and understood the above conditions and hereby agrees to disclaim any right may accrue to him as a devotee in online transaction in view of the special nature of these services and further the devotee agrees that if the devotee approaches court of law then the devotee will approach the competent court under the jurisdiction of District Court Malappuram.

Privacy & Disclaimer policy

The customer details collected from the devotees (as listed in the online booking page), are only for the purpose of doing pooja and for sending prasadam. The data will not be shared with any other agency for any other purposes.

The temple is not collecting or storing the card details of the customers in the server. It is used only for the purpose of doing amount transaction by the payment gateway.

Cancellation Policy

Cancellation of the bookings done through the online booking site will not be allowed under any circumstance.

Return & Refund Policy

Due to any unforeseen reasons or due to reasons beyond the control of Devaswom if the vazhipadu cannot be conducted, the amount remitted by the devotee will not be refunded.

Once the devotee offers the vazhipadu to the Deity, the offerings so made through the online facility is accepted by Devaswom, it is a non-reclaimable transfer to Sree Kadampuzha Bhagavathi and the devotee is not entitled to any claim for the payments so made through the online booking portal.

Shipping & Delivery Policy

If the devotee chooses the option to receive Prasadam via post, only Chandanam/Sindooram will be sent by ordinary post by Indian Postal Service in India and abroad, in the address furnished at the site by the devotee. Devaswom will not be responsible for any delivery failures.

The devotee agrees to provide current, complete and accurate registration information while booking the online vazhipadu. Devaswom shall not be responsible if the information provided by the devotee is wrong or pertains to a third party.